Data Protection Statement

IMPORTANT: For the purposes of determining eligibility of being a member of the Carter kindred, we keep details of names and addresses of actual and potential beneficiaries who have registered with us. This may include copies of documents and certificates to verify your identity. We maintain a register of all the descendants of John and Nathaniel Carter, and we do this to help us identify offspring that may benefit from our support. A brief summary of registrations is retained indefinitely, as this is our lawful basis for determining eligibility and is of historic interest for the charity.

For more information regarding your personal data rights, please refer to our Privacy Policy on our website. The John and Nathaniel Carter's Trust is a Data Controller registered with the Information Commissioner's Office – Registration Number ZA319098.
